

T. J. DUFFY ENTERS CAMPAIGN IN OHIO AGAINST DONAHEY

East Liverpool Man Seeks Democratic Approval
For Governor.

GOV. DAVIS' ENTRY
STILL POSSIBILITY

Not Satisfied With Stand Of
Other Candidates On His Record.

Columbus, May 12. — T. J. Duffy, of East Liverpool, chairman of the state industrial commission, issued a formal statement today announcing his candidacy for the Democratic nominations for governor at the August primaries.

George White of Marietta, former Democratic national chairman, issued a statement at the same time taking himself out of the race.

Duffy's entry and White's retirement, followed a series of conferences here as to which should enter. White said he did not care to enter a three-cornered fight. Duffy will contest with former State Auditor A. V. Donahey of New Philadelphia, for the nomination.

Duffy will be 45 years of age next Sunday. He was born in England, reared in Wheeling, W. Va., went to work as a potter at the age of 11, educated himself in night schools and at the age of 26 was president of the National Brotherhood of Operative Pottery, which position he held for eight years or until he was appointed by Gov. Harmon on the state liability board of awards in 1911.

In 1913 he was appointed one of the first members of the state industrial commission and his term does not expire until July 1923. Since his appointment on this commission he was admitted to the bar. He is married and has five children.

In his announcement Duffy scores the present administration for the passage of the reorganization law and the supreme court for upholding the emergency clause. He said this should be one of the important issues of the campaign.

Davis Still Doubtful
In view of Gov. Davis' declaration that he stands just where he did when he made his statement on April 6 last, relative to the question of his being a candidate for re-nomination, politicians here today are predicting that the governor will weigh in for re-nomination unless he is satisfied with the position taken publicly by other Republican gubernatorial candidates in support of the Dunn reorganization act.

It is stated that while Republican candidates for governor have openly endorsed the reorganization act, none of them has defended the emergency clause attached to the law.

On April 6, Gov. Davis said he would support no candidate who would not support both the act and the emergency clause.

Five civic organizations in Salem have appointed committees to work in conjunction with city council's traffic committee in an endeavor to outline rules for automobile parking in the business district that will meet the demands of the present day.

They expect to be called into conference with the council committee before next Tuesday night when a parking ordinance is expected to be presented to council. COAL MINE DYNAMITED, 16 MEN UNDER ARREST

Pittsburg, May 12.—Sixteen men were lodged in jail at noon following the dynamiting of the Peterman coal mine at a North Bessemer, early today by a group of miners estimated to number close to 100.

Threats to wreck other mines with dynamite were not carried into execution. A large force of deputy sheriffs dispersed the band of marchers which blew up the Peterman mine.

No specific charge has been lodged against the men now in jail here but they are being held for further questioning by the sheriff.

MRS. HARMON TO SPEAK ON MOTHER'S DAY

Program Will Be Given In Legion Rooms Sunday Afternoon.

Mother's day in Salem will be observed Sunday with the wearing of flowers, special church services and a program for the public to be given at 3 p. m. in the American Legion rooms on Broadway.

Quartet singing, speaking and a song service by the assembly will constitute the program arranged by the Women's auxiliary of the Legion.

Mrs. L. E. Harmon, Columbiana, reported to be an excellent speaker, will deliver the Mothers' day address. Selections will be given by a quartet composed of Miss Gertrude Mellett, Miss Phoebe Nichols, Mrs. James Briggs and Mrs. Cora Schwarz and the assembly will join in a song service.

This year the Legion is urging its members to observe the day by going to church with their mothers.

WOMAN HIDES IN MINE WHEN POLICE SEEK HER

Alliance, May 12.—Rather than allow the authorities to return her to the state asylum for the insane at Newburg, from where she made her escape two weeks ago, Mrs. Rose Blakely, 38, Cleveland, fled into a coal mine tunnel at Lexington, Wednesday a few miles, late Wednesday evening.

Police Captain Stark of the Alliance force was sent to the home of Mrs. Blakely's relatives, where she had been staying and when she saw the officer approach ran from the house and sought shelter in the mine. A search resulted in finding the woman lying under a small ledge in the mine about 700 feet from the entrance.

AUTO CHASH IS FATAL

Camden, N. J., May 12.—One man was killed and two injured on the Marlton Pike near here today when an automobile crashed into a farmer's cart. The dead man is Jerry Lane, 20, of Camden.

Limit Parking, He Advises

Put a time limit on parking, is the advice P. S. Shaw, director of public safety in Alliance, gives Salem.

"We have parallel parking on both sides of Main st with no limit of time except on Saturdays from 12 o'clock noon until midnight, which has not been enforced for some time but which we expect to enforce in the very near future," Director Shaw writes.

"Owing to the crowded condition on both sides of the street by automobiles would suggest that if you change to parallel parking on both sides of the street you would put a limit to the time from the very first, as you will find it more satisfactory."

ETNA STREET HOME RAIDED, ZECK JAILED

Whisky Found, Fine Of $200
Imposed; Frank Howard
Is Fined $200.

In a raid Thursday night on the home of Michael Zeck, 149 Etna st., Police Chief Thompson, Officer Gray and Kirkbride confiscated about a quart of corn whisky and several gallons of wine.

Arrested Friday before Mayor Post on a charge of illegal possession of intoxicating liquor Zeck was fined $200 and committed to jail pending payment.

Frank Howard, colored, was fined $200 for illegal possession of intoxicating liquor and released. He paid $50 down and promised to pay the other $150 at intervals designated by the mayor.

Arrested the second time within a week for intoxication, Dell Read and Al Gregory were sentenced to 29 days each in the city jail on bread and water by Mayor Post.

In imposing the jail sentence Mayor Post stated that the two are habituals and he was going to see if a jail sentence would cure them as he was tired of having them before him on intoxication charges.

"Bill" Taylor, known as the "Mayor of Millville," was given a bath in the city jail Thursday as a result of the sentence of a bath and 15 days on bread and water imposed by the mayor. Taylor, it is claimed, offered some objection but his protests were overruled and one part of the sentence carried out.

KENTUCKY DERBY CROWD GATHERING; MORVITCH IS CYNOSURE OF ALL EYES

Louisville, Ky., May 12. — Kentucky fans and an over-swellung crowd of visitors worshipped today at the shrine of the thoroughbred race horse.

The 48th renewal of the Kentucky Derby at his oric Churchill Downs tomorrow will witness the most brilliant spectacle of the American turf and the greatest crowd that ever saw the famous race, according to every indication today.

Every state in the union and several foreign countries will be represented in the crowd that will squeeze through the turnstiles. The great holiday crowd was arriving today in ever-increasing numbers.

The mighty Morvitch is the cynosure of all eyes. While four guards kept the curious from crowding close Morvitch munches his hay and oats and seems all unconcerned at the furore he is creating.

Owner Benjamin Blood and Trainer Fred Burlew are well satisfied with the condition of Morvitch and predicted today that with conditions favorable, the great colt will break the track record at 2:03 1/5 and may equal the American record of 2:00 held by Harry Payne Whitney's Whiskbroom 11. This record was established at Belmont Park which is faster than Churchill Downs.

INJURED BY AUTO, SUES SALEM MAN FOR $25,000

Miss Billingsley states in the petition that she was walking along West Sixth st in East Liverpool about 8 o'clock in the evening, when an automobile driven by the defendant came along. She was knocked down and sustained numerous injuries.

DEMPSY AGREES TO MEET FRENCH CHAMPION AGAIN

Champions Are Matched To Box In Europe Before
June, 1923.

EXPECT BOUT TO BE STAGED IN LONDON

Dempsey Draws Color Line, Says Georges Looks
Better Than Ever.

London, May 12.—Jack Kearns, manager for Jack Dempsey, announced this afternoon that he had reached an agreement with Francois Deschamps, manager of Georges Carpentier, for a return match between the heavyweight and light heavyweight champions to be fought in Europe on a date not yet fixed but to be before June, 1923.

Douglas Stuart, wealthy turfman, today offered a purse of 75,000 pounds sterling (normally about $355,000) for the match between Dempsey and Carpentier in London in September.

Both Dempsey and Kearns say that Carpentier looked better when he knocked out "Ted" Lewis last night than when he was defeated by Dempsey in Jersey City last year.

London May Get Bout
The bout probably will be staged in London, although there is much disappointment here over the Carpentier-Lewis contest. What was expected to be a gruelling battle with flashes and skillful boxing proved a fiasco and more of a wrestling match than any thing else.

In view of the ugly attitude of the crowd, London powers today printed long expert opinions to prove that Carpentier won fairly and that Lewis had not succumbed to a foul blow. "The final right-hand punch of Carpentier was perfectly fair," said Joe Palmer, the referee.

"The men were in a clinch, but had broken away. It was Lewis' business to protect himself. He knew that under the rules Carpentier was allowed to hit."

Dempsey has drawn the color line. Kearns reiterated that the champion would not meet Harry Williams, saying: "I believe that the public would rather see white men fight together and negroes fight together."

A governmental investigation of the proposed merger of six independent steel organizations into one gigantic organization was ordered today by the senate.

LaFollette's resolution was adopted without a record vote.

Washington, May 12.—The pending merger of six great steel corporations was branded today as a "dangerous probability of immense injury to the country," by Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin in a speech in which he demanded that the senate pass his resolution asking an investigation of the proposed combine by the federal trades commission and the department of justice.

Cleanup Drive In First Ward

The spring cleanup campaign will be started in the first ward Saturday morning, according to Mayor John W. Post who is directing the work.

Efforts were made to finish the work by Saturday night but the large amount of rubbish collected in the other wards was greater than expected and at least one day next week will be necessary.

Goodwill Club
Thursday afternoon members of the Goodwill club met with Mrs. Ross Culbertson, Main st., and enjoyed the hours at social chat and needlework. In one month the members will be guests of Mrs. Ira Burton, Goshen rd.

CHORUS SINGING, DANCING TO FEATURE LEGION SHOW

One of the big features of the show "All Aboard" to be given May 22 and 23 at the Grand theater, under the auspices of Charles H. Carey post No. 56, American Legion, is the clever dancing and singing of the chorus.

Mr. Mock of the John B. Rogers Producing company has expressed himself as being more than pleased with the way the play is coming. He especially commends the "Bashful Pumble Bee" group on its ability in kicking up the dance steps in a shorter time. This group is composed of 18 girls of the same height, about the same age, all having bobbed hair and all from Salem.

"Barney Kehl" and "Bull Works," two eccentric sailors, played by Wallace Duncan and Eugene White, have a dance and song and are backed by one of the choruses.

The afternoon and evening rehearsals of the choruses are being held at Elks ball room, while those having the principal parts in the comedy release at the Legion rooms, Broadway, at 8 p. m. daily.

Quail Hoover has charge of the ticket sale for this entertainment and tickets are now on sale.

STEEL MERGER MAY LEAD TO BIG COMBINE

Bethlehem Deal Is Seen As Forerunner Of Great
U. S. Competitor.

Youngstown, May 12. — That the merger of the Bethlehem and Lackawanna Steel corporation is but the forerunner of a gigantic combination which in addition to the Bethlehem and Lackawanna concerns would include the Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Republic Iron & Steel, Briar Hill steel, all of Youngstown, the Steel & Tube Company of America, and the Inland Steel, both of Chicago, and the Midvale Steel & Ordnance Co. of Johnstown, Pa., is the belief expressed here today in usually well informed steel circles.

Each an organization headed by Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem and one of the best organizers and executives in the steel industry, would prove a most powerful competitor for the U. S. Steel corporation.

Local steel executives refused to discuss the recent merger.

Washington, May 12.—The pending merger of six great steel corporations was branded today as a "dangerous probability of immense injury to the country," by Senator LaFollette, Republican of Wisconsin in a speech in which he demanded that the senate pass his resolution asking an investigation of the proposed combine by the federal trades commission and the department of justice.

All Lies, Cries Peggy Joyce As She Reaches U. S.

New York, May 12.—"Lies. All damned lies."

With arms flung aloft, tears of rage and mortification glistening in her eyes and as one small foot stamped in anger, Peggy Hopkins Joyce, noted as the modern Cleopatra, thus denied stories of heart-breaking, home-wrecking and wild parties in Paris on her arrival here from Europe today on the liner Naurentania.

It was a serious-minded scher and chastened Peggy that came back home from gay Paris. She brought with her more than $100,000 worth of goods and jewels. She said she was going at once to Norfolk, Va., to visit and comfort her mother.

"I am not the flippant man hunter and home breaker and heart wrecker that I have been pictured in reports from Paris," Peggy continued.

"These reports have driven me nearly insane. My health is breaking. The only man I ever really loved has killed himself because of me."

She referred to "Billy" Errazuriz, a youthful South American, and former attaché to the Chilean embassy in Paris, who committed suicide a fortnight ago in Paris.

Appointment of a committee composed of W. W. Brown and S. C. Jessup of Salem Chamber to work with R. S. McCulloch, George Bunn and R. B. French Premier Instructs
Delegates At Genoa
Not To Withdraw.

Genoa, May 12. — The first great constructive step in the economic international conference was taken today when Premier Lloyd George, head of the British Empire delegation, laid the foundation for his long heralded 19-year non-aggression pact to preserve the peace of Europe.

In an official statement issued from British headquarters, announced was made that:

1—The British Empire delegation has accepted the Russian reply as the satisfactory basis for an European truce.

2—The British will formally propose a truce based upon existing frontiers and pending the work of the conference commissioners and the formation of a definite Russian agreement.

"A break on this document would mean that all the border states would be exposed to the danger of a war and the peace of Europe might be fundamentally disturbed," said the British official statement in reference to the Russian note of last night.

Paris, May 12.—Premier Poincare today instructed the French delegation at the Genoa conference not to withdraw, but to abstain from all further negotiations over the Russian problem.

DEMAND SPEEDY TRIAL FOR MURPHY AND PALS FOLLOWING INDICTMENT

Chicago, May 12. — Demand that "Big Tim" Murphy, Fred Mader, Cornelius "Con" Shea and five others indicted for murder in connection with the killing of two policemen in the bomb war attributed to labor gangsters, be rushed to trial and sent to the gallows, was made by the state's attorney's office.

The eight were named in indictments voted by the grand jury in special session last night.

Additional indictments were expected today, in the drive of the police and law enforcement organizations against the so-called "labor outlaws."

Mader, Murphy, Shea and the others indicted were ordered held without bail to answer to the indictments.

Music In The Schools

A recent meeting of Columbus

teachers Superintendent Randal

J. Condon of the Cincinnati schools pleaded for enlargement of the music department of the public schools and increased activity in its larger development. Years of experience had convinced him that music is such a vital part of education and fitness for life that it ought to be emphasized whenever possible. His personal experience provide an interesting part of his address and had helped in formation of his ideas.

As a farm boy in Maine his first adventure with music was in the old country school house singing school, an activity once largely developed, but now scarcely found anywhere. He had learned the old, do, ra, me, method of reading music. His first instruction in singing was crude but effective. It had given him an appreciation and understanding of what a little musical knowledge means to the individual. It had turned him toward music, had influenced his life and contributed largely to his happiness.

It was his contention that not only vocal but instrumental music should be taught. Pupils with a love for instrumental music ought to be given help in their school days. The musical knowledge they would acquire, the musical development they would receive, would help fit them in an important way for both success and happiness in life.

What can be done with the child in the development of music was demonstrated in Salem last week when the grade pupils presented their musical program for the public.

It demonstrated not only the musical possibilities developing among these children, but also the progress in music attained under the direction of the instructor in music. In Miss Grace P. Orr the Salem schools have a great asset for her work in the schools has been a credit to her and to the city. The public universally recognizes her ability and her increasing value to the schools is evidenced by the marked progress she has made from year to year.

The Uncensored Circus

THE circus is with us, unchanged and changeless its elements remain unbroken by the march of science and reform. The spoken drama has its shifts from comedy to problem play and back again; but the only tragedy of the circus is that it comes but once a year and its only problem is whether the spectacle is better in the afternoon or at night. The films strive for popularity with their storms and their vampires; but what storm on the screen can vie with the roar of the great Numidian lion, what vampire is ever half so fascinating as the Circassian Lady?

The country gossips over the wickedness of the boudoir drama and the bad influence of some of the picture plays; and the cry goes up for a censorship. But nobody demand a censorship for the circus.

The most daring figure under the tent is that of the trapeze artist

in the pink tights, and she is no more shocking than her grandmother was some fifty years ago. The circus has no Hollywood. The wildest parties of its people are those at which the Snake Charmer exchanges views on knitting with the Fat Lady.

The circus at its beginning was the most furious spectacle of ancient Rome. Now it is the most conservative pleasure of the times. It was invented to please the nervous, restless Romans of 25 centuries ago. It was revived to perform the same function for the equally restless

Americans. The people have shot ahead of the circus in their nervousness, but they seek it each spring to find rest. They flee from jazz to the soothing notes of the steam callieve floor of the ballroom to cool their feet on the healing tanbark.

The best way to renew youth is to go to a circus and, seeking the sideshows, view the picture of the ailors capturing the Wild Man of Borneo. If this does not chop off from thirty to eighty years the case is hopeless.

Boy, Page The Barber!

For 41 years the beard of Zach T. Wilcox of Carson City, Nev., has grown unhampered by the shears or razor of a barber. His hirsute adornment more than four feet long, shall never be cut, says Wilcox—regardless of how loud or ingenuously you page the barber.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS FOR BLADDER ILLS

Dayton Man Reports Relief With Simple Remedy After Getting Up 15 or 20 Times Each Night for Two Years

Mr. Julius Mayer, 1430 East Fifth st., says in his own home paper, the Dayton News, "For two years my bladder caused me to get up many times at night and too frequent in the day. After taking a few doses of Lithiated Buchu, my bladder works perfectly normal and I can sleep all night."

Lithiated Buchu acts on the kidneys and bladder as Epsom Salts do on the bowels. You will be surprised at the impurities which come from the bladder after taking a few doses of Lithiated Buchu. It is not a pain medicine as the formula is of the package. The tablets cost 25¢ each. This price makes it possible to place in the formula several high priced drugs, which are useful to give relief. It is not likely that you have ever taken a remedy similar to this. Try a few doses for backache, scalding, scanty or high colored urine and frequent desire at night.

You can see the formula and learn more about Lithiated Buchu at The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Bennett Drug Co., and drug stores everywhere, or write The Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio.

HORTON GRANTED $639 FOR COAL ROYALTIES

A verdict was returned in Judge Glenn's court Thursday afternoon in the case of J. C. Horton against Pasqualina Gioianni for $639.55 in favor of the plaintiff, and the court overruled a motion for a new trial.

Horton owns a tract of land located along the Lisbon and Salem rd and he claimed that Gioianni had reason of a lease from N. M. Albright, the former owner of the land, had mined coal from underneath the land, and asked the court to give him judgment for royalties on the same amounting to $15,240. The jury remained out about an hour, returning a unanimous verdict.

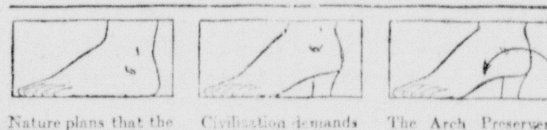

Do your feet give out in the afternoon?

PROBABLY there is nothing the matter with your feet, but soon after you put on your shoes, they begin to tire. Why? Nature planned the foot to have three points of contact with the ground—heel, ball and outside arch. But in raising the heel from the ground, the arch is left without a firm support. Your weight bearing down on the unsupported arch strains it.

The Arch Preserver Shoe raises the heel and arch from the ground, thus giving the foot the stylish appearance you desire; but unlike shoes with bending arches, it has a concealed built-in arch-bridge that supports the arch. Though shod in the latest fashion, your feet are free from strain all through the longest, hardest, day when you wear Arch Preserver Shoes.

Wednesday evening the primary class of Bunker Hill Sunday school gave "Tom Thumb's Wedding" to a large audience. The children presented a quaint and comic appearance in their different makeups. Much credit for the success of the entertainment is due to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Harry Cook and Mrs. Stanley Howard, teachers of the class.

Mother's day will be observed with an elaborate program at Bunker Hill church at 9:30 a. m. Sunday.

Why restaurants take ice the year 'round

THEY are in the business of handling food on a large scale; they know the economy of ice, even in midwinter, by keeping food in a steady, dry cold.

Food waste to them is a big item; they not only have to keep food from spoiling, they have to keep the crisp, delicate flavor in it and the full nutritive value which stale food loses.

Ice in a good restaurant or hotel is indispensable at all seasons of the year. So it is in a good home, especially these days when weather is so changeable.

When the air around it is 50° or higher, milk spoils rapidly; so does meat; vegetables wilt and fruit starts to rot. Why take such a risk when ice costs but a few cents a day?

If Back's Lame or Kidneys Bother

Drink Plenty of Water and Milk—Start Flushing Them in the Morning

Nine out of ten overlook the fact that the kidneys like the bowels are clogged and lazy and need a purgative flushing now and then to help these delicately constructed organs filter all the waste and toxins (poisons) out of the blood; otherwise there is a retention in your system of life acid and poisonous matter which when permitted to remain cause pain and dull misery in kidney region, headaches, rheumatic pains, disturbed rest and all sorts of annoying bladder troubles that excite and irritate the entire urinary system, creating distress.

To have strong, healthy kidneys and bladder, you simply must keep your kidneys clean and active so that they are capable of easily and normally filtering and expelling the poisons, neutralizing the acids and freeing your system of urinous wastes. No artificial drugs are necessary. Merely secure a package of Dr. Carey's PRESCRIPTION NO. 777 (Tablets or Liquid).

The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Bolger & French's drug store, and Floding's drug store and all good druggists have it. Take a little right after eating for a few days and your sluggish, tired out kidneys will then work with ease. It never disappoints, is pure, tastes good and for your health's sake its small cost is negligible. Ten days test will not disappoint you or druggist will refund your money. Insist on genuine.

for governor, announced here today that he had sent letters to Carmi A. Thompson and Harvey C. Smith, other gubernatorial aspirants for a state-wide tour together.

Beetham suggests "that we arrange a tour of the state, going into as many counties as possible, holding public meetings at which each shall present himself and his views.

"By this plan much time could be saved the voters of the state as they could see three candidates at one meeting instead of attending three."

SPRAYING WILL WIPE OUT LAWN DANDELIONS

Dandelions can be cleaned out of a lawn by spraying with a solution of iron sulfate, two pounds of the chemical to a gallon of water. The old method of cutting them out by hand is all right, too, if your back can stand it and if you cut deep to kill the root stock.

So agricultural extension workers of Ohio State university stated today, answering publicly a considerable number of inquiries which have been received from landowners. E. P. Reed, soils specialist, formerly of the New York experiment station is especially convinced that the spray treatment works, since it was at this station that the method was worked out, and he saw the results.

"The station lawn was matted with dandelions," he says, "and four sprayings, two in the early summer and two after midsummer, cleaned them out by fall. Unfortunately, the treatment also kills white clover, and it is well to carry on at the same time a program of reseeding and fertilization. Keep the spray off walks as it discolors them."

"At least four summer applications are necessary. Put on the first spray now and another one before hot dry weather. Skip the midsummer season, and get on two more sprays before fall."

"As to cutting by hand, unless you cut deep and often all you are likely to get for your labor is a bunch of salad greens and more dandelions. Some gardeners find it helpful to put a handful of salt on the spot from which each dandelion is removed, to kill the rootstock."

Finds Increase In Buying Power Of Ohio Farmer

The purchasing power of the Ohio farmer picked up 14 per cent over the past winter.

"This is a heartening improvement, remark rural economists of the Ohio State university, making their latest monthly report on price levels. A marked pickup in farm prices, especially during the past few months, has increased the buying power of the Ohio farmer from 71 per cent normal, the figure last fall, to 85 per cent normal."

Every working day last winter, more than 5,000 Ohio country people drove to a local school or church and joined state speakers in a discussion of farm, home and community problems. Total attendance at these Stateaid Farmers' Institutes for the 12 weeks' winter session was 364,973.

Four such institutes were scheduled in every Ohio county, and only one had to be called off, says F. L. Allen, supervisor of the work, who announces these figures upon receipt of an attendance report from the last of these 351 communities where institutes were held.

The figures represent an advance of some 50,000 over the attendance of the previous year. Independence community institutes, held without state aid, have still to report.

Ohio returns on the first American census ever to take into account farm drainage operations, that of 1920, have just been issued from Washington in pamphlet form. The returns show that half of the farms in the Buckeye State have put in some kind of a drainage system, and that an additional 33 per cent have urgent need to do so.

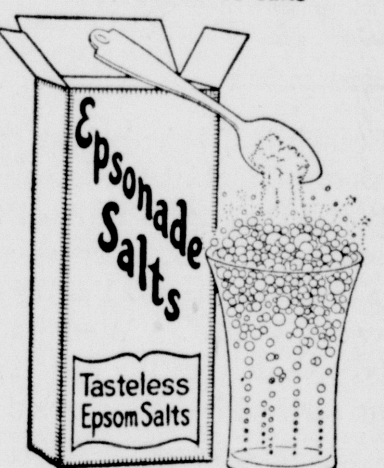

As to drainage enterprises embracing more than one farm, Northwestern Ohio is reported far in the lead, with "a very large proportion of farms included." The rest of the state, especially the southeast, lags behind, and such enterprises are reported to touch only 26 per cent of the improved acreage of Ohio as a whole.

Lewis Stopped By Carpentier In 1st Round

London, May 12.—Georges Carpentier won over Ted (Kid) Lewis in the first round of their scheduled 20-round match for the world's light heavyweight championship here last night.

Carpentier's victory was achieved after two minutes and 15 seconds of fighting.

When the bell rung for the start of the fight Lewis rushed and got at his opponent. They clinched and the referee stopped the fight and warned both men. Lewis rushed again and caught Carpentier with a couple of lefts and rights. Carpentier held and was warned by the referee who was being kept very busy.

Carpentier tried his right and just missed one to the jaw. They again clinched and on the breakaway Carpentier, with a right to the jaw, sent Lewis to the boards to be counted out.

It was a most sensational round and a sensational finish. Carpentier was holding and hit his man on the breakaway. He was entitled to do this, but the spectators raised a clamor, there were many cries of "foul" and the Frenchman, as he returned to his dressing room after he had knocked out Lewis, was booed by a section of the crowd.

PITTSBURG PIRATES PLAY AT YOUNGSTOWN

The first of the season's major league attractions in this vicinity will be at Youngstown Sunday afternoon when George Gibson and his Pittsburgh Pirates invade the Mahoning county steel center for their annual exhibition game with the undefeated Vahey Oils backed by Mick Stambaugh. The game will be at Idora park.

The Pittsburgh Nationals will present a lineup that is almost entirely new, "Scoop" Carey in the outfield being the only oldtimer with the exception of the battery men.

Pittsburg will use all regulars in the game. The probable lineup will be Mattax, catcher; Maranville, shortstop; Grimm, first base; Ems, second base; Traynor, third base; Bigbee, left field; Carey, centerfield; Mueller, right field. A recruit pitcher probably will be used the greater portion of the game.

Vahey Oils will present the regular lineup with the pitching selection resting between Lefty Williams, Evans and Dillinger.

New York, May 11.—"Pepper" Martin, local featherweight who knocked out Babe Herman of California in the first round about a week ago, has been matched with Jack Sharkey for a 12-round bout at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, May 20.

SALEM TO SEND LARGE DELEGATION TO COUNTY FIELD MEET SATURDAY

Several hundred Salem students will accompany the track team to Lisbon Saturday to witness the annual Columbiana county track and field meet at the fair grounds.

The participants will leave in the morning to enter the preliminaries while the student body will wait until the start of the finals at 11:30 p. m. Eighteen athletes will comprise the local team to uphold the school's colors in the 12 events and the mile relay. Coach Vavian will be in charge.

Six schools will be represented, East Palestine, East Liverpool, Wellsville, Lisbon, Columbiana and Salem. Wellsville and Lisbon are considered strong contenders with Salem and Columbiana as appearing dangerous. Expectations are that records will be broken in the field events, probably the discus throw, pole vault, running high jump and running broad jump. In preliminaries records are reported to have been shattered and with keener competition in the spring school classics it is most assured bet that some of the old records will be smashed.

Gaines, the Columbiana colored athlete, holds the majority of track records and it is believed they will stand this year as no speedy dash

Its unquestioned superiority is founded on brilliant design, generous value, substantial construction, and painstaking attention to detail. When you see it, mark its beauty. Note its over-strength parts, and powerful guaranteed motor. Hear how quietly it operates. Observe how it overcomes every constructional objection you have to other cleaners.

The switch in the handle, easy for the housewife to stop and start. It has a wonderful and instantaneous finger-tip nozzle adjustment for rugs and carpets with any length of nap. STORIES SENATORS TELL IN PRIVATE

FORAKER OF OHIO SHOCKED
THE NOTORIOUS MODESTY OF PLATT OF CONNECTICUT.

FULSOME PRAISE TOO MUCH

Amendment to Temporary Prohibition Measure for Oklahoma, Proposed by Morgan, Which Horrified Gallinger, the Advocate of All Reforms.

Washington.—The senate of the United States is regarded generally as the staidest kind of a body. It is seldom that jokes are cracked on the floor of the upper house, but occasionally there is an approach to humor or an attempt at humor on the part of some senator in a speech, and then there is anything approaching even the giggle which precedes laughter.

In the quiet of their committee rooms senators occasionally tell stories, and a good many of them have to do with men whom they have known in public life, but who are dead and gone.

One day a member of the upper house told a story of Senator Foraker of Ohio and Senator Platt of Connecticut, both of whom now are dead. Mr. Platt was known as the most modest man who ever had a seat in congress. He was modest to the shrinking point. The story ran like this:

Platt's Modesty Severely Shocked.
When Senator Foraker was making a speech against the proposal to admit Arizona and New Mexico as one state he quoted from arguments made by Senator Platt, who years ago on the floor of the senate declared that Dakota was too large to be admitted as one commonwealth and that it should be split in twain. The Ohio senator started in this: "The senator from Connecticut, Mr. Platt—"

At this instant the main door of the senate chamber opened and Senator Platt appeared and started slowly down the center aisle. He had not heard his name as it fell from the lips of Senator Foraker, who continued: "One of the most villain-minded, one of the ablest senators who ever held membership in this body—"

Senator Platt had advanced ten feet. Every pair of eyes was upon him. Senator Foraker continued: "A man known to the country for his distinguished services—a man known for the fine quality of his mind—"

Senator Platt was now within ten feet of the front row of senatorial desks. The eyes were still upon him, and in them and below them there was silent laughter.

Senator Foraker went on: "A man whose opinion upon questions of moment carries weight always and conviction nearly always. I go not astray when I seek the words of the eminent senator from Connecticut, Orville Hitchcock Platt."

Senator Platt had been listening without suspicion. His name heard, he fairly folded his towering form, fell into a seat and there sat shivering from the shock to his Connecticut modesty.

Morgan's Little Joke on Gallinger.

Another story was told of the late Senators Gallinger of New Hampshire and Morgan of Alabama. The bill to admit Oklahoma as a state was under discussion and Senator Gallinger had introduced an amendment providing that no intoxicating liquor should be sold in the new state for twenty-one years. Fully two-thirds of the Democrats and Republicans in the senate had said individually that they believed with Mr. Gallinger that the only righteous course to pursue was to make it impossible for the Indian inhabitants of the new state to get possession of intoxicating drink, and as each senator expressed his views Senator Morgan nodded his aged head approvingly.

Then the Alabama senator rose at his seat and solemnly proposed to Mr. Gallinger's amendment an amendment to the effect that no one should sell or give intoxicating drinks to the inhabitants of the new state except wines which were made in the United States.

Senator Gallinger, who was the head and front of every reform movement which reached the senate, looked with horror at his friend from Alabama. The New Hampshire senator had in front of him in imagination a picture of five civilized tribes laying in a season's supply of California port and Missouri champagne. He hastened to tell the senate that Indians could get drunk on the American product as rapidly and as completely as they could on the product of the vineyards of France, and that there were as many warpath possibilities in a bottle of one as in a bottle of the other. The amendment to the amendment was voted down, and there was just a suspicion of a movement of the body of the Alabama senator to suggest that he was laughing.

Spreading the Glad Tidings.

"Would you give a wayward man a bit to eat, mum?"
"I will, if you'll do me a favor."
"What is it, mum?"
"Go across the street to that green house, ask the woman over there for a cup of coffee and say you saw a new electric washing machine in my house. She's been going around telling the neighbors I couldn't afford one."

Public Economy Motto of Republican Administration

Operating Expenses of Government Reduced Nearly One Half by Republican Congress Working in Harmony With Executive Department

U. S. REPRESENTATIVE MARTIN B. MADDEN
(ILLINOIS), CHAIRMAN HOUSE COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

The estimates submitted by President Wilson for the conduct of the Government for the fiscal year 1921 amounted to $6,150,000,000, and the appropriations made under these estimates by a Republican Congress amounted to $4,789,000,000, showing an approximate saving in appropriations for that year of $1,400,000,000.

The estimates submitted by President Wilson for the fiscal year 1922 were $5,600,000,000, and the appropriations made under these estimates by a Republican Congress were reduced to $4,065,000,000, showing an approximate saving of $1,600,000,000.

The estimates for the fiscal year 1923 submitted by President Harding amounted to $3,853,000,000, and the appropriations, when completed, will probably be $3,500,000,000, or $353,000,000 less than the estimates.

The people of the United States should understand that for many years to come it will not be possible to run the Government for less than $3,500,000,000 per annum. This seems like a very large sum, but when it is realized that we have three fixed charges, consisting of interest on the public debt, sinking fund, and maintenance of the Veterans Bureau, which were created by the war and amount to approximately $2,000,000,000 per annum, it will be seen that the other expenses of the Government have been reduced by the Republican administration to $1,500,000,000.

The annual cost of the Government before the war was $1,250,000,000. Thus it will be seen that the present cost, aside from the fixed charges referred to, is but $250,000,000 in excess of pre-war cost, and at least $150,000,000 of this is accounted for by the normal increase in the business of the postal service, leaving but $100,000,000 of expense for ordinary purposes in excess of pre-war costs.

Mrs. W. D. Marshall, who has been ill, is better.

At the meeting held at the school house Tuesday evening it was decided to hold a school reunion and

Any one who has followed the conduct of the Government since Mr. Harding's induction into the presidency must marvel at the rapidity with which the cost of government has been reduced. It is the constant aim of the administrative and legislative branches of the government, all in control of the Republican Party, to administer the affairs of the Government on a strictly business basis, expending not a single dollar for any purpose not essential to the Nation's needs. The one thing on which all are agreed is rigid economy in Government expenditure, and nothing can more forcibly portray the story of accomplishment achieved in this direction than the statement that costs have been reduced to the extent above indicated.

One billion, five hundred and seventeen million have been expended on the care of the wounded and sick soldiers of the World War up to February 1st, last, indicating that nothing has been left undone to provide for the care and comfort of the men who gave themselves to the country in its hour of need.

The country is to be congratulated on having Mr. Harding in the presidency. The problems handed down to him from the war complicated though they are, have been solved in the interest of the people. He has had the vision to see, the patriotism to do, and the courage and ability to achieve. His devotion to the Nation's needs has been the admiration of all who have watched him. He has been zealous, painstaking, patriotic, untiring and unselfish, and he has had and will have the hearty co-operation of the Congress in his efforts to put the country on a stable basis. Nineteen hundred and twenty-three will find America the only country in the world living within its income. The people have reason to rejoice at this accomplishment of their President and their Congress.

May Be Vetted by President Harding Unless Means of Raising Revenue Are Provided—Possibility of Delay for Tariff Legislation

Washington.—Washington politicians, and especially members of the house of representatives and those senators who will come up for re-election soon, are trying hard to determine what effect the passage of an ex-service man's bonus bill will have at the polls next November.

There are men here, Republicans and Democrats, who say the passage and the signing of the bonus bill will have no effect on the election—that the thing is six of one and half a dozen of the other so far as vote attracting or vote repelling is concerned.

The Republican majority in the senate decided in a caucus the other day that a soldiers' bonus bill shall be presented and sanctioned by the upper house at this session. There are some prominent senators of both sides of the chamber who will speak so strongly in debate against the measure that it is said to be possible their arguments may offset any good which the bonus advocates expect to find in the voting field next autumn.

The bonus measure probably more markedly than the navy bill will test the stick-to-opinion qualities of President Harding. He does not like the bonus measure as the house passed it because it left uncertain the means of raising a revenue to meet the payments. It is still believed he will veto any bill which does not carry with it a sales tax provision for a raising of the money, unless there is some provision in the tariff measure to do the same thing. The house is against the tariff suggestion.

The senate today does not seem to be able to give a definite opinion as to the best means of procedure along money-raising lines. Of course the upper house is handicapped in revenue action because under the constitution all revenue-producing legislation must originate in the house of representatives.

Passage of Bonus Bill Is Certain.

It is certain today, however, that some kind of a bonus measure will pass congress at this session. Of course, as already has been intimated, what will happen to it when it reaches the White House remains to be seen.

There are some Republican senators, mostly easterners, but with two or three westerners among them, who are opposed to the bonus and who will speak against it even though they may be induced for party reasons later to vote for it. These senators do not believe that bonus legislation will help the Republican cause at the polls, and there are some Democratic senators who do not believe that if the Republican majority should decide not to pass the bonus bill it would hurt the party in the election; but of course, naturally, the Democrats who hold this view are not voting it publicly.

The tariff and the bonus are companion measures today in the keeping of the senate. It is not yet decided definitely whether the tariff will be side-tracked for a week or so in order that the bonus measure may be given consideration, but it is intimated that some Republican senators will not weep if the tariff bill shall fail to become a law at this session of congress.

Tariff May Be Delayed in Conference.

It is believed to be possible that the tariff may go over until the next session, not because the senate will refrain from passing the house measure much amended, but because there is a chance that after the bill goes to the conference committee of the two houses to straighten out the differences of opinion, congress may quit, and let the bill stay in conference until the next session.

Not by any moulding of imagination or of thought can the bonus bill be called a party measure except in so far as it is in legislative form the child of representatives of the Republican party. Most of the Democrats showed a willingness to vote for it in the form in which it appeared in the house, and probably will vote for it in any form that it is likely to appear finally in the senate. This takes some of the partisan politics out of the bill and will give to the minority Democratic party in congress a part of the blessing or the blame, whichever it is to be, which finally shall be bestowed by the country.

What the Republicans and Democrats in congress would like to know definitely is exactly how all the ex-service men of the country stand on this bonus bill. Neither party, seemingly, is certain that the majority of ex-service men favor the passage of the bill, although every effort has been made to have it appear that the men lately of the camp and of the field solidly are back of the legislation.

"Lawn Need a Hair Cut?"

Asks Padlox
Goodness, how the grass has grown in the last few days.

Pretty soon you'll have to get out your old trusty mower and give the lawn a hair cut.

Or haven't you got an old trusty—old rusty would be a better name for many.

In either case, it's to your advantage to come in and look over our stock. You'll find plenty that will clip your lawn so that it will look like a carpet of rich velvet.

Then there are grass hooks, grass shears and turf edgers to trim up the raw edges and grass catchers to keep the lawn from looking like a barber shop floor after a Saturday of haircuts.

And probably you'll need to shampoo it often. That means a good lawn hose.

You'll find all these here. Shur Gro will make the grass grow.

Goes Farther

A can of Calumet Baking Powder will make more pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins, etc. than a can of most other brands.

It lasts longer—goes farther because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength—therefore you use less.

When a recipe calls for two teaspoons of baking powder, use two level teaspoons of Calumet, the results will always be the same—perfectly raised bakings—remember this when you buy baking powder and don't forget that Calumet is the economic buy because it goes farther.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
